OFFICE OF THE
SECRETARY OF STATE

September 18, 2002

Mr. Ken Haller
1611 Clemson Road
Reno, Nevada 89502

Dear Mr. Haller:

This office has been notified by the Reno City Clerk that you failed to file your Contributions and Expenses Report Number 1 as required by Nevada Revised Statute (NRS) 294A.120 and 294A.200. As a candidate for the office of Mayor, you are required to comply with Nevada Election Laws. Failure to timely file your Contributions and Expenses Report is a violation of such laws and subjects you to a monetary penalty as discussed below.

The Secretary of State, as the Chief Elections Officer for the State of Nevada, is responsible for enforcing the provisions of Title 24, Election Laws, which includes Chapter 294A of the NRS.

On the 7th of May, 2002, you signed an acknowledgement wherein it states that you understand the requirement to timely file your Contributions and Expenses Reports even if:

- You withdrew your candidacy;
- You had no opposition;
- You lost the primary;
- Your name does not appear on either the primary or general election ballot;
- You were elected to office; or
- You did not file a declaration of candidacy, but are a candidate as defined in NRS 294A.005 because you received campaign contributions in excess of $100.

This acknowledgement also states that you understand that a violation of the reporting requirements is subject to a civil penalty of up to $5,000 for each violation.

In addition, this office sent out a notice on August 14, 2002, reminding you that the report was due on August 27, 2002.

The penalty schedule is set forth in NRS 294A.420 as follows:

- If the report is filed 1-7 days late, $25 for each day the report is late.
- If the report is filed 8-15 days late, $50 for each day the report is late.
- If the report is filed more than 15 days late, $100 for each day the report is late, up to a maximum of $5,000 for each violation.

NRS 294A.420 authorizes the Secretary of State to waive a penalty for good cause shown. Nevada Administrative Code (NAC) 294A.097 defines good cause as: (1) Within a reasonable time before or on the date the applicable report was due, the candidate or a member of the family of the candidate, within the second degree of consanguinity, died, had a serious medical condition or was hospitalized; or (2) The candidate is experiencing extreme financial hardship. A request for waiver of any penalty imposed pursuant to NRS 294A.420, must be made in writing, addressed to:

Secretary of State
101 North Carson Street, Suite 3
Carson City, Nevada 89701-4786

and must set forth the reasons which you believe establish good cause. The delinquent report must be filed before the Secretary of State will consider a request for waiver of the penalty.

As of this date you have failed to file your Report Number 1. This report was due on August 27, 2002. The penalty assessed to date is $1,275.00. Please be advised that the penalty will continue to accrue at a rate of $100.00 per day according to NRS 294A.420 until the filing of your report. Pursuant to NAC 294A.098 you may not use campaign contributions to pay this penalty.

Enclosed is a blank copy of the 2002 Contributions and Expenses Report. Please fill out the report and file it with this office immediately. If you are going to request a waiver, please include that with your filing. Also enclosed for your reference is a copy of your signed acknowledgement and the pertinent statutes and regulations. As a reminder, there are two more reports that must be filed: Report Number 2 is due October 29, 2002, and Report Number 3 is due January 15, 2003.
